DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a polishing composition, classified in class 252, subclass 79.1.
  - II. Claims 10-13, drawn to a method of polishing, classified in class 438, subclass 689.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different composition, such as one that does not required the use of the claimed specific ace groups.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination

Art Unit: 1765

5. Examiner Michael A. Marcheschi made a call to the applicant's representative. During a telephone conversation with John W. Bailey on 10/3/02 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claims 10-13. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-9 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Objections

7. Claims 12 and 13 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claims 12 and 13 are dependent upon non-elected claims 3-9.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

9. Claims 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miyazaki et al. (US 4,915,710).

Miyazaki teaches a process comprising:

Applying gluconic and or lactic acid, which is an example of applicant's roll-off reducing agent comprising one or more compounds selected from the group consisting of carboxylic acids having 2 to 20 carbon atoms having either OH group or groups, to a substrate to be polished (column 3, lines 20-33 and column 5, lines 6-36). Since Miyazaki applies the same composition to a substrate that is to be polished as that in the present invention, then using Miyazaki's composition in polishing a substrate would inherently result in a process of reducing roll-off of a polished substrate, as in claim 10 and a process for producing a polished substrate, and in claim 11.

October 19, 2002

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a polishing composition, classified in class 51, subclass 307.
- II. Claims 10-13, drawn to a method of polishing, classified in class 438, subclass 690.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different composition, such as, one that does not require the use of the claimed specific acid groups.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with John W. Bailey on 10/3/02 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of group II, claims 10-13. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-9 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.
